11 COOL LAKE GENEVA ADVENTURES TO TRY THIS WINTER!

During the summer, families retreat to Lake Geneva, Wis., for boating, fishing, beaches and other lake activities. But come winter, Lake Geneva transforms into a different kind of getaway spot – one where you can take a sled ride down a mountain, ice fish on a frozen lake or cozy up to an outdoor fireplace. Whether you've been to Lake Geneva before or you're looking for a new favorite winter getaway, here are 11 of the top things to do in the winter in Lake Geneva:

1. SKIING, SNOWBOARDING AND SLEDDING

Where: Grand Geneva Resort & Spa

Get into winter sports at the Mountain Top at Grand Geneva, perfect for skiing and snowboarding. Skiing and snowboarding lessons are offered on the premises. For the more seasoned skier, there's a nighttime ski for a more adventurous trip. For those traveling with small children, there's sledding – the perfect winter family-fun activity.

2. CROSS-COUNTRY SKIING

Where: Big Foot Beach State Park, Grand Geneva Resort

Once the snow begins to fall, visitors can find cross-country skiing options at both Big Foot Beach State Park or Grand Geneva Resort & Spa. Equipment is provided at the two locations, where skiers can take off on designated cross-country trails. All trails are maintained daily.

3. ICE SKATING

Where: Grand Geneva Resort, The Abbey Resort, Lake Lawn Resort, The Ridge Hotel

A number of Lake Geneva's best resorts feature ice skating rinks during the winter. The skating rinks are open during the day and evening. Afterwards, the resorts offer special activities, including hot cocoa for skaters at The Abbey, which can be enjoyed next to a warm fire. Ice skates are available for rent.

4. SNOWSHOEING

Where: Grand Geneva Resort, The Ridge Hotel and Big Foot Beach State Park

Walk along the snowy landscape with snowshoes, easy to learn, and one of the best ways to explore the snowy backcountry and other areas of Lake Geneva. Snowshoes are available for rent at The Ridge Hotel, Grand Geneva, Big Foot Beach State Park, and Clear Water Outdoor.

5. WINTERFEST

Where: Throughout Lake Geneva
